PLEAD GUILTY.

Twenty-five Washington Place.
Men Waive Trial.

John Lane Being Tried for Misprision of Treason.

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

MORNING SESSION.

The Military Commission convened at 9:30 o'clock.

The following prisoners were brought in. They were charged with treason. They number twenty-five, namely: Sam Kekaha, William Bill, Kamuela Hakuole, Opunui, William Ahia, Ed. Ting Sing, Sam Hala, John Kaaua, Makauahoa, Maui, Dan. Kaaua, Jack Naiwi, Hala Huihui, Solomon Kapiho, Ben Mael, Wm. Kanakaole, Wahia, Kuawa, Kiamanu, Wm. Hakalau, Kaauwai, Kaia, Welewele, Ulukou and Waiola. These men had been on duty at Washington Place. They desired no counsel and pleaded guilty to the charge.

John Lane was next brought in for trial. He is charged with misprision of treason. He pleaded not guilty and desired Paul Neumann as counsel.

Sam Nowlein was the first witness. His evidence was materially the same as given in the previous cases, about the loading of arms, and the enlisting of recruits. The lists had been made out by William Olepau and Pukila. They were destroyed by witness at his own house. The accused was on the list.

William Hakuole Silver, sworn, states: Went to Kaae's house on Jan. 3; saw the accused and went with him out King street; near Thomas Square Jim Lane came after us and told us to go back; met Robert Wilcox near the Catholic cemetery; told the accused that we were going to Bertelmann's to go out and board a steamer which had arms. did not see the accused at Bertelmann's; after getting to Bertelmann's I went out with Wilcox in a canoe and boarded the Waimanalo; the guns were landed at Kahala.

Charles Warren, sworn, states: Was sent with George Townsend by Nowlein to go out and meet a schooner which had arms; boarded the schooner and later came on the steamer; stayed on the steamer two and a half days; there were 285 rifles; landed them at Kahala; on Thursday night was at Bertelmann's; on Friday morning before daylight was in the canoe shed with John Lane, Jim Lane, Lot Lane and Townsend; talked with Townsend about where the guns were hid; Wilcox came out of Bertelmann's and told Townsend to come into the house, and despatched John Lane, the accused, on horseback into town; the guns were removed next day and hid in another place; was at Kahala on Sunday cleaning guns; was at Kaimuki on Monday and engaged in the fight with the Government troops; left before dinner.

Cross-examination—The accused was in the canoe shed with his brothers on Friday morning; there were other persons in the shed, about four or five, which I could not detect; I am sure I made statement about arms being landed when the accused was present; he only stayed about five minutes after I made the statement; have made previous statement to Mr. Robertson; have made the same as now.

Recess taken to 1:30 o'clock.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Papers Filed—Conspiracy Cases—Estate J. T. Waterhouse.

John Emmeluth, having failed to have John Cook adjudicated bankrupt, brings suit against him to recover $1156.11, including interest at 9 percent, for money advanced to pay defendants' dues in the American Legion of Honor.

Defendants in Nahaolelua and others vs. Kaahu and others have filed an answer to amended complaint of plaintiffs.

Akaka answers the complaint of L. B. Kerr, saying the claim for $606.38 is incorrect and not conforming with defendant's books.

M. F. Crandell by his attorneys, Paul Neumann and W. R. Castle, moves that J. K. Sumner by his next friend, Maria S. Davis, be ordered to file a bond for costs and a bond of indemnity in his bill for injunction against defendant. An affidavit is filed by defendant, Crandell, setting forth that Maria S. Davis is poor, and has been supported with $50 a month from Sumner; that when Sumner's affairs came into his hands, the income of his property came far below what it ought to have been, namely, less than $2500 a year; but that under defendant's management the income has been increased to more than $5000 a year, and that leases are being arranged for which would still further increase the value of the property, but which may be prevented by the injunction prayed for, thereby causing great loss to Sumner, and deponent says that he cannot now pay the stipend authorized by Sumner to Maria S. Davis.

Judge Cooper opened the adjourned Circuit Court term this morning.

The indictments against Joseph Nawahi and John E. Bush for conspiracy were read to defendants, and their plea was reserved until Wednesday. C. W. Ashford for defendants.

George Malina was arraigned for perjury, and he pleaded not guilty. His case was continued till next term, special or regular.

E. C. Crick was arraigned for conspiracy, and he declined to plead to the indictment. The Court ordered a plea of not guilty to be entered on his behalf. C. W. Ashford for defendant.

George Summers was indicted for burglary and he pleaded not guilty. His case was continued to the next special or regular term.

W. P. Bowen, charged with arson, was called and failed to answer. Attorney General W. O. Smith moved that the bond be declared forfeited and the amount paid into Court. The bondsmen are: S. I. Shaw, $150; H. E. McIntyre, $200; Jas. Oida, $500; T. B. Murray, $150. Other cases were called and some continued till Wednesday and others for the term.

Judge Cooper is this afternoon hearing the petition for the probate of the will of the late John Thomas Waterhouse.

The wills of Henry Dimond and Mrs. Anna Maria Dimond will also come up for probate.

TAKEN THE OATH

To Support the Constitution and Laws of the Republic.

Following is a continuation of the list of persons swearing support to the Republic:

George B. Connet, Caleb Carpenter, Thomas Mullen, British; O. L. Sorenson, Hawaiian-born of Danish parents; Adam Duncan, Hawaiian; W. M. Johnstone, H. H. Dobson, Jos. Braun, Fred. Dyke, Henry Putt-huff, James Deas, Wm. M. Daly, C. E. Huston, American; Herman Sittenfeld, German; Jos. Delnotar, Swiss; Loo Kon, Chinese; Wm. Sam. Kaapa, Iola Malailua, David Anahui, Hawaiian.

C. W. Ashford Out.

C. W. Ashford, one of the ex-Attorney Generals arrested for sedition, was released Saturday night after about seven weeks of confinement. He was seen at the Post office on Sunday morning and asked if he was at complete liberty. "Yes," was his answer, "at complete liberty to take a trip for my health."
